Calling all Harry Potter fans! Anyone ages 8 and up is invited to visit Hogwarts (even if you have never read the books or seen the movies). We will do lots of fun games and activities, talk about the books and movies, and get to know new friends who love the Harry Potter series too! Be sure to register on the Google Form, or call or visit the library to let us know you'll be there.

Online Event: The Art of Foraging with Alexis Nikole Nelson

Thursday, Apr. 10 ~ 7 pm
Zoom

Alexis Nikole Nelson is a forager and an outdoor educator using her platforms, TikTok account alexisnikole and Instagram page blackforager, to celebrate all the edible plants hiding in plain sight. She peels back historical layers on African American and Indigenous food traditions that have traditionally been repressed and empowers those living in food deserts with greater self-sufficiency.

Nelson received the James Beard Award for "Best Social Media" 2022, was chosen for the Forbes 30 Under 30 list and as a TikTok Tastemaker, and was honored as part of Fortune Magazine's Creator 25 in 2021. Nelson gave a TED Talk in 2022 and in 2023 joined the YouTube channel Crash Course to host a 15-episode botany series. Alexis Nikole Nelson will be joined in conversation with Natalie Evans, a wild edible foods instructor.

This program is made possible through Illinois Libraries Present, and you can sign up at this link to receive the Zoom information!

BOOK RECS

Check out these great books at the library or online on Libby, Hoopla, or Boundless!

Adult

Remarkably Bright Creatures by Shelby Van Pelt

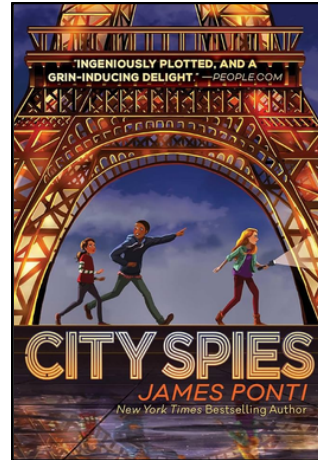

In this heartwarming story, Tova is a lonely widow who forms an unexpected bond with Marcellus, a clever octopus at the aquarium where she works. As Tova searches for answers about her son's disappearance years ago, Marcellus uses his quick wit to help her in ways no one could anticipate. This captivating novel explores themes of grief, healing, and the surprising ways we can find friendship in the most unlikely places.

Junior Fiction

City Spies by James Ponti

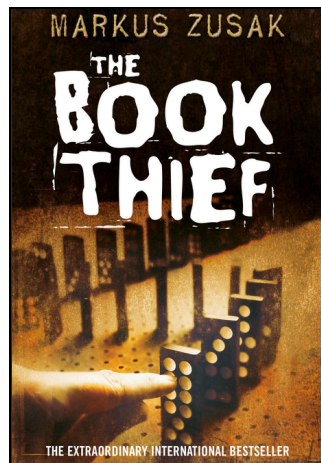

This book follows the character of Sara Martinez, an orphan who is recruited by a top secret organization to become part of a team of young spies. As she embarks on high-stakes missions across the globe, Sara and her team of fellow teens use their unique skills to solve complex problems and thwart dangerous plots. Full of mystery, adventure, friendship, and suspense, this book is a fast-paced thriller perfect for middle grade readers!

Young Adult

The Book Thief by Markus Zusak

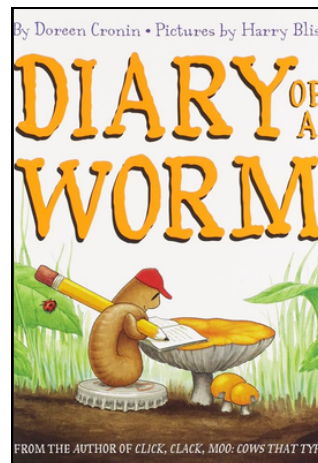

In this historical fiction book, a young girl named Liesel must survive the horrifying realities of living in Nazi Germany. Amidst the chaos, she discovers the power of words and a love for reading, even getting involved in a very dangerous resistance movement of stealing books to save them from book burnings. With a unique narrator, this book blends history, suspense, and adventure.

Children

Diary of a Worm by Doreen Cronin and Harry Bliss

Diary of a Worm follows the daily adventures of a young worm, sharing his experiences and observations about life from an underground perspective. Written as a humorous diary, the main character shares thoughts on everything from school to family to the challenges of being a worm. A sweet, funny, lighthearted read from a unique point of view!

MAGAZINE EXCHANGE

Did you know we have a magazine exchange at the library? You can drop donations at the library's circulation desk:

- Donations should be in good condition
- Magazines should be recent (within last 12 months)
- Content should be family friendly; no explicit subject matter

TAKE any magazine you're interested in -- no need to return!

PRINTING SERVICES

Did you know that the library offers printing, copying, and faxing services? Printing and copying are $0.15 per page, and faxing is free. You can print from one of the computers in the library, or you can send items to print from your phone or device as long as you are connected to the Carlock Public Library wifi. If you need help with any printing, copying, or faxing, just ask a staff member!
